Cloudy With a Chance of Meatballs Special Story Time Programs at Salinas Public Libraries

The new animated movie Cloudy With a Chance of Meatballs will be released in theaters on September 18, 2009. Inspired by Judi Barrett's beloved children's book of the same title, the film focuses on the town of Chewandswallow where food falls from the sky. It snows mashed potatoes and rains juice... until the weather takes a turn for the worse. The most delicious event since bacon was teamed up with eggs!

The Salinas Public Library will celebrate this children's story, and the release of the movie, by holding two special story time programs to read the book:

September 17th, 4:00 p.m.

El Gabilan Library

1400 N. Main St.

758-7302

September 19th, 11:00 a.m.

John Steinbeck Library

350 Lincoln Ave.

758-7311

Programs are free and open to the public
